Critical Illness Insurance

A home for your family will likely be the largest investment you ever make. You do a lot to keep it safe and sound, from installing new windows and plumbing to ensuring its foundation stays stable for decades to come.

But what about your own well-being?

If you or your spouse had cancer, a heart attack or other serious illness, you'd want to focus on your recovery – not on how you'd pay your mortgage.

Assurity's Critical Illness Insurance can help relieve financial strain while you recover from cancer, a heart attack or stroke, or several other serious conditions and procedures.¹

Just think: A $1,500 monthly mortgage could be covered for two years with a critical illness insurance policy with a $36,000 benefit amount. That's protection for your home – and your financial well-being – for both you and your spouse for less than $2.50 a day.²

When you're faced with a devastating illness, you'll have enough on your mind already. An Assurity Critical Illness Insurance policy allows you to focus on what's most important: getting better.

1. Heart attack does not include established (old) myocardial infarction occurring prior to the issue date, sudden cardiac arrest, cardiac arrest or cardiopulmonary arrest.

2. Illustration based on a 42-year-old male, Non-Tobacco and 38-year-old female, Non-Tobacco.

NOT AVAILABLE IN NEW YORK.
